NELSON DISTRICTS WOODTURNING CLUB

El Presidente

Hi all, hope you have all had an eventful month, making the most of this rain we are having! I said in last months newsletter to send photos for the sign outside the clubrooms to my email address which I realise now that I neglected to put in so here it is:

hawkescroft@yahoo.com

If anyone is still interested there are still raffle tickets for sale for the lathe and other items, they will be on sale at Tuesday's demo and again at the Xmas do!

Speaking of demos, Terry will be hosting this Tuesday's demo so anything goes!!

We are very lucky in that a donation of paint from Pinnacle Painters, has been given to the club for the repainting of the clubrooms. Date to be confirmed.

Xmas do is on again at the Prince Albert, the menu is the same as last year but the price has gone to $33.00 a head.

up

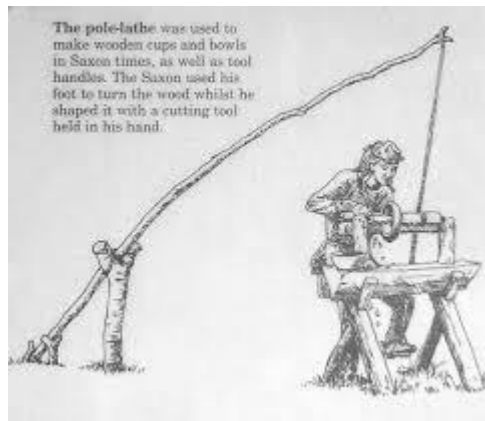

Mike Peckham informed us at the committee meeting that Nelson market now has a website in which you are able to sell items should you wish to do so, more info at this Tuesday's demo.

At the moment it is proposed that for December demo we will be showing some short videos from various wood turning artists. This be could be enough to inspire and encourage you to have a go at something new.

As most are probably aware, we do not hold any demo's or committee meetings during January as most are away, but Simon holds an open day at the beginning of January for those interested. Just turn up and enjoy a day of turning and a good old banter. Possible date for this is January 3rd -to be confirmed.

If you are interested in You Tube watching then one to watch is sphere turning by Brian Mills - an excellent watch from a clued up engineer!

Cheers Stuart
